Quick Quotes

Q. Kevin, just first obvious question, how does it feel to be back playing in South Carolina?

KEVIN KISNER: This is probably my favorite event to come to of the year. It's so relaxing after last week. I grew up as a kid playing this golf course in tournaments. It's a cool place to come, bring your families, and just hang out. It was such a grind last week, and then to come here is like a vacation.

KEVIN KISNER: Yeah, I feel good. Having a week off after you win is huge. You kind of get your rest and get back to ground zero. And last week is such a grind, how long and hard the week is. To come back here is one of my favorite tournaments, I'm looking forward to playing well here.

KEVIN KISNER: Yeah, I feel good. My game is probably in the best shape it's been in years. I feel really good with what I'm working on. I'm starting to see a lot of results that I'm looking for on the course. Just need more golf courses like this on the Tour.

Q. For how special, A, is the First Tee at Aiken, and B, that you had an opportunity to meet and get to know a lot of the players?

KEVIN KISNER: Yeah, I thought that was a really cool story and for her to learn golf through the First Tee, which I've been involved in been a part of for 15 years in Aiken is really cool. And to see her striving and excelling at golf as a college scholarship, and then I saw her swing, and I see why. She striped it down the
